EXPERIENCE

Mr. Brewer is a board certified specialist by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in the field of family law. He has concentrated his practice in family law while overseeing select civil disputes and lawsuits in his other practice areas. As founder and senior partner of Brewer, Anthony & Middlebrook, P.C., Mr. Brewer and his colleagues have a long history of representing churches, church leaders, and ministry organizations throughout Texas, across the United States, and internationally.

As a Charter Member of the Collaborative Law Institute of Texas, Mr. Brewer joined with an innovative group of family law attorneys to assist parties and their counsel to use a new, non-judicial approach to resolving disputes. The collaborative law process brings counsel together to work alongside mediators, neutral experts and mental health professionals to exchange information and produce a settlement agreement. Collaborative attorneys may not serve as litigation attorneys. Mr. Brewer is a lifetime member of the Texas Institute, which has been instrumental in advancing the collaborative method of case management and settlement.

Mr. Brewer has been a member of Fellowship Church since 1992 where he has served in various ministries and positions of leadership. Additionally, Mr. Brewer served as a director of Fellowship Church for over ten years, and was part of the leadership team during the initiation and development of Fellowship Church's multiple campuses located in Grapevine, Dallas, and Plano, Texas, and most recently in South Miami, Florida.
